BULLETIN of the Connecticut Historical Society

Volume 6 Hartford, January, 1940 Number 2

Announcement was made at the October meeting of the death of two of the Society's Vice Presidents; Frank Farnsworth Starr of Middletown, who had served us for almost fifty years, and Annie Burr Jennings of Fairfield.

At this meeting Chief Justice William M. Maltbie read a paper upon "The Unconstitutional Period of Connecticut History", in which he traced the basic law of the Colony and State from the Fundamental Orders to the Constitution of 1818.

The President announced a bequest of $5,000. to the Society in the will of our recently deceased life member, Jane Tuttle.

At the November meeting Reverend Remsen B. Ogilby, President of Trinity College, read a paper upon "The History of the Trinity Campus", describing that section and the changes that had taken place there from the earliest settlement to the present time and mentioning its one time use as a gallows hill.

"Henry Barnard: Educator of Teachers" was the subject of the paper read by Dr. Ralph C. Jenkins of Danbury at the December meeting. The paper dealt with Dr. Barnard's interest in specialized training for teachers and general improvement of public educational facilities.

Through the courtesy of the heirs, we have received from the estate of Mrs. James J. Goodwin of Hartford, a valuable gift of books selected from her library, many of them gathered by her late husband, a generous benefactor and Vice President of the Society. The collection consists of about 380 bound volumes and 70 pamphlets with a few early newspapers and miscellaneous items. Local histories and other historical books, historical and genealogical magazines and family genealogies form the bulk of the collection. There are also a number of English histories, books on heraldry and on bookplates. Another valued gift is Harper's Weekly for 1862-1865 from Florence S. M. Crofut.

The Society has leased a room with an adjacent vault in the old Ætna Life Insurance Company Building, and erected shelving in both.

Books now boxed and in storage and duplicates and other books from the Library not often used are now being shelved there.
